

Shaanxi DLC DVD Narration

CDDLN-Shaanxi DLC is one of the 12 members of GDLN located in Western Region of China, supported by the World Bank and DFID.

CDDLN-Shaanxi DLC is situated in Xi'an, one of the four most ancient cities of the world. The acceptor of CDDLN Shaanxi DLC - Xi'an University of Architecture & Technology offers first-class network platform and splendid learning environment for better communication with the world.

Shaanxi DLC, with the principle of "attending first to the request of the market", is scheduled to have three main training programmes, namely, students-oriented training, administrative employee in enterprise training and administrative employee in government training.

So far, Shaanxi DLC has held a wide variety of training programmes including trainings on architecture, urban planning, business administration and so on, with thousands of people having been trained.

Since it's establishment, a number of multimedia courseware systems have been made progressively such as project "Digital Architecture Museum".

We will strengthen cooperation with other members of GDLN and CDDLN to make research and development of the marketing of CDDLN higher and deeper.

We will stick to the principle of "Supported by the Government, Meeting needs of the Society and Serving Enterprises".

We will reach the same goal of "centralizing platform, sharing resources".

We plan to collaborate with SHAANXI SME INFO SERVICE Co. LTD to offer a most informative resource in Shaanxi.

CDDLN-Shaanxi DLC is a platform for you to stand firmly on Shaanxi and face to the world!

CDDLN-Shaanxi DLC is a window for you to know more about China and Western Region of China!

CDDLN-Shaanxi DLC is a bridge for you to grow together and to understand each more!

Welcome to join the team of CDDLN and GDLN!
